

Patient Two Details:

- Patient is a known case of diabetes mellitus, which is controlled with medications.
- No history of intake of medications, which can precipitate like lichenoid reactions.
- No history of tobacco consumption in any forms.

Cutaneous examination-

- Multiple, flat topped, polygonal, violaceous papules and plaques, measuring 1 to 2 cm.
- Surface of the lesion appears shiny with fine white lines.
- The distribution is bilateral flexor aspect of wrists, ankle, and lower legs
- Koebner phenomena; present

Mucosal examination-

- Oral cavity
- Bilateral buccal mucosa shows white, lacey reticular patches.

Hair and nails

- Scalp- shows no alopecia
- Nails- dorsal pterygium is observed.